

TAKE HAIR OUT NOT OFF THE SKIN

Hair is bound to grow out coarser and stiffer when merely removed from the surface of the skin. The only common-sense way to remove hair is to attack it under the skin. DeMitrace, the original electrolytic liquid, does this by absorption.

Only genuine DeMitrace has a money-back guarantee in each package. At toilet counters in 50c, $1 and $3 sizes, or by mail from us in plain wrapper on receipt of price.

FREE book mailed in plain sealed envelope on request. DeMitrace, 120th St. and Park Ave., New York.

ASLEEP 40 DAYS, CAN'T WAKE WOMAN

SYRACUSE, N. Y., July 10.—Proclaimed by the attending specialists the strangest case of its kind in medical history, Mrs. Barnett Kaufman has been unconscious at the Crouse-Ingersoll Hospital here since May 31.

Today is the fortieth day Mrs. Kaufman has lain apparently asleep, responding to no attempts made to arouse her and showing no indications she knows anything about what is going on around her. Her heart action remains good.

Mrs. Kaufman suffered a stroke of apoplexy in November last. For a long time she was speechless. On January 24 of this year, her son, Philip Kaufman, a well-known vaudeville actor, died in New York. When his body was brought home and she saw his face, Mrs. Kaufman regained her speech, and retained it until a few days before May 30, when she suffered the second stroke.

There has been no apparent change in her condition from the moment she was stricken until the present time.

HAPPENINGS IN SOCIETY

Mrs. Wilson at Capitol to Hear President's Message—Doings of Society

MRS. WOODROW WILSON, accompanied by Miss Margaret Wilson and a party of guests, went to the Capitol today to hear the President make his plea to the Senate for the ratification of the peace treaty and the covenant of the League of Nations. Mrs. Marshall, wife of the Vice President, and Mr. and Mrs. William Line Elder, of Indianapolis, who are staying with her, were present in the Senate gallery, and the company which assembled for this historic-making occasion included the heads of the diplomatic missions now in Washington and many prominent officials, with the ladies of their families.

The President and Mrs. Wilson have already settled down into their familiar routine at the White House. Mrs. William H. Bolling, mother and sister of Mrs. Wilson, spent most of yesterday with her and had luncheon at the White House. In the afternoon the President and Mrs. Wilson went for a long motor ride.

The Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing, who have been in Paris since last December, will sail for home tomorrow.

Newberry's Back in Town. Mrs. Truman Newberry returned to Washington on Tuesday with Senator Newberry from their summer home at Watch Hill, R. I. She will, however, spend the greater part of the summer at Watch Hill, the Senator joining her whenever possible.

Mrs. William C. Langfitt, wife of Brigadier General Langfitt, is at Martha's Vineyard, Mass., to remain until the general returns from overseas. Mrs. Langfitt had expected to go abroad to join her husband. She had even taken out her passport when she learned that he was to come home shortly and consequently gave up the trip.

Mr. and Mrs. William Corcoran Hill will leave town on August 1 for Narragansett Pier, where they will pass the rest of the summer.

Col. William Mitchell, Engineer Corps, U. S. A., who has recently returned from France, and Mrs. Mitchell are now taking a month's leave and, at the expiration thereof, will go to Camp Humphreys, Va., where he has been detailed to duty. Mrs. Mitchell made her home in Washington while her husband was abroad.

Mrs. I. S. Goldsmith will be at home at the Milford, 623 M street, on Saturday evening from 8 to 12 o'clock, in honor of the eighth birthday of their daughter, Miss Frances Goldsmith.

Jeuneur at Embassy. The French Ambassador and Mme. Jusserand, who returned to Washington with the Presidential party, are now at the embassy in Sixteenth street.

The Attorney General, A. Mitchell Palmer, entertained a small company at dinner at the Shoreham last evening.

Charles R. Vopicka, American minister to Rumania, Serbia, and Bulgaria, who is now in New York, is expected in Washington this week.

Capt. Roy R. Glen, of the British embassy staff, entertained at dinner at the Chevy Chase Club last evening.

Baron d'Estournelles de Constant, of the French senate, is now in New York, but will come to Washington shortly. He is here on a diplomatic mission.

Wickfield's Return. Mr. and Mrs. Askel Chr. P. Wickfield will return to Washington today after a brief stay with Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Lippitt at The Farms, Beverly, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. Wickfield expect to sail on Saturday for Europe, and will spend most of the summer in France and Denmark.

Charles Pergler, commissioner of the Czechoslovak republic, has returned to Washington from New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Dillingham gave a dinner and dance last night at their country home at Manhasset, L. I., for Prince Aage of Denmark and his aides, who are now staying at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel, New York.

Mrs. Herbert Shipman will remain at Newport, where she now is, until late in July, when she will join her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edson Bradley, at their summer home in the Thousand Islands.

Frederick Oerlein, commercial adviser of the Swiss legation, is in New York for a visit and is stopping at the Vanderbilt Hotel.

To Leave for Summer. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Van Rensselaer will leave Washington tomorrow for their summer home at Berkeley Springs, W. Va. Their daughter, Mrs. James Carroll Fraser, will remain in Washington for a week or two longer. She is winding up the affairs of the committee of the Navy League, of which she is the head, and which has done such a notable work during the war.

Miss May Ladsburg will leave Washington next week for a series of visits.

John J. Daly was married to Miss Julia Katherine Taylor at Holy Trinity Church, Georgetown, on Tuesday, July 1. They were attended by Miss Mary Cairns and Edward Cumberland. Mr. and Mrs. Daly will make their home at 1411 Thirty-sixth street.

Lieut. Commander Albert C. Read, U. S. N., who commanded the naval aeroplane, NC-4 on its flight from Far Rockaway to Plymouth, England, will go to Newport, accompanied by Mrs. Read, the latter part of this week and will visit Commodore and Mrs. Arthur Curtis James. Commander Read was the honor guest at a luncheon given yesterday in Boston by the Boston City Club and the Aero Club of New England. He was welcomed to New England by Governor Coolidge of Massachusetts and Governor Bartlett of New Hampshire, his native State.

McAndrews Visits West. Brig. Gen. James R. McAndrews, U. S. A., who recently returned from France, where he served as chief of staff for Gen. John Pershing, has gone to the Pacific coast, accompanied by Mrs. McAndrews, on a two months' leave of absence. On their return General McAndrews will take command of the war college.

Miss Mercedes Rafferty and Charles Baber Catus, whose engagement was announced on June 20, completely surprised their friends yesterday by announcing that they had taken their wedding into their own hands several months earlier and had been married on January 25. The ceremony was performed in the Collegiate Reformed Church, in New York, by the Rev. Dr. Malcolm B. McLeod, the pastor, on the evening of that date. The only attendants were Miss Geraldine Hall, who was one of the last winter's debutantes, and Mott Brennan, of New York.

Inasmuch as Brig. Gen. William Carroll Rafferty, U. S. A., and Mrs. Rafferty, the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. John Van Antwerp Catus, of New York and Bay Head, N. J., parents of the bridegroom, were pleased by the engagement, which had existed several weeks before it was announced, they were at a loss yesterday to understand the elopement. A formal wedding had been arranged for next autumn.

Mrs. Catus was introduced to society in New York two years ago by her mother, who has made her home in the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, while Brigadier General Rafferty has been absent on military duty. She is a granddaughter of Maj. Gen. Judson Kilpatrick, who, after his service in the civil war, was sent to Denmark, and ambassador to Austria-Hungary. She is the sister of Lieut. William Carroll Rafferty, Jr., U. S. A., who served in France with the aviation section of the Signal Corps and now is a student in Columbia University.

Smith-Wilson Wedding. A pretty wedding took place yesterday afternoon in the Delta Gamma Sorority House at 1440 Belmont road, when Miss Amy Laura Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto L. Nelson, of Omaha, became the bride of Capt. Robert Frederick Smith, U. S. A., of Swanton, Ohio. The ceremony was performed at 4 o'clock in the front drawing room of the sorority house, where the bride has made her home ever since she succeeded in organizing and establishing the chapter house. The Rev. Wallace Radcliffe, officiated, in the presence of a large company of relatives and friends of the bride and bridegroom. The bride's only attendant was her sister, Miss Edna Nelson, of Omaha, and the bridegroom's best man was his brother, George Smith.

The girls of the sorority, living in the house, wore the ribbon bearers, and formed an aisle through which the bridal party passed to the improvised altar. The house was a profusion of pink and white roses and green foliage, all done by the Delta Gamma girls, as a tribute of fellowship. The wedding music from "Lohengrin" was played by Miss Colette Lamb, and Miss Ruth Dunsmuir sang "Oh, Promise Me." Just before the entrance of the bridal procession, the ribbon bearers and the musicians were all dressed in organdie frocks of the different colors of the rainbow, making a pretty color effect. The bride wore white organdie, a round ankle-length skirt and semi-high-necked bodice and a white hat. She had a corsage bouquet of orchids and white roses. Her sister was in pale pink organdie with pink hat and a bouquet of pink roses.

Mrs. Otto L. Nelson, mother of the bride, wore a gown of pale blue georgette, and Mrs. C. F. Smith, mother of the bridegroom, was in gray. After the bride and bridegroom left for their wedding trip, the bride wearing a suit of navy blue tricot with a black hat and an automobile coat of light-weight tan cloth. They went by motor to Atlantic City, from where they will go to New York for a visit, and then by easy stages in their motor car, to their new home in Swanton, Ohio.

Waggoners Buy Residence. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Waggoner have bought the residence at 1814 New Hampshire avenue and will take possession of it in the fall, after making extensive improvements. They have abandoned their plan to go to Cleveland to live in the autumn.
